The aim is to collect as many points as possible by betting on your ability to complete a series of ridiculous challenges using an assortment of seemingly random objects.

All players attempt the exact same challenges, so get ready for the ultimate battle of abilities!

FAST AND FRANTIC FUN! HILARIOUS FOR KIDS, TEENS & ADULTS

Age means nothing in this addictively fun party game - challenges have been designed to level the playing field between the young, old, fit and frail, so it's the perfect game for families. Just don't be surprised if your great aunt Erma or kid sister takes you to the cleaners!

SUPER SIMPLE RULES! HOW TO PLAY

Beat That! consists of 10 rounds of challenges. Start by dealing 10 betting tokens to each player (tokens have different values).

Next, pick up a challenge card and read it aloud. All players then place a bet on their own ability to complete the challenge. Once bets are placed, take turns attempting the challenge. Players who succeed bank their points. The player with the most points at the end of 10 rounds is the champion!
